About Us

Founded by a school teacher and still led by one today, Resources for Courses combines deep educational insight with expert large-scale event delivery. For 34 years, we have delivered Australia's leading career and education events, connecting over a million students, jobseekers, parents and educators with universities, training providers and employers.

Who Joins Us

Our events feature organisations seeking to connect with students, parents, educators and jobseekers:

- Universities, TAFEs and training providers
- VCE/HSC resource and service providers
- Employers, apprenticeship and skills training organisations
- Student support services and career advisors
- Tutoring, revision and study skills programs
- International exchange and gap year programs
- Youth-focused programs and services

How It Delivers

Exhibiting at our events drives awareness, generates leads and builds lasting connections:

- Showcase your brand to an engaged, education-focused audience
- Promote courses and services to students, jobseekers and decision-makers
- Gain quality leads for future enrolments or hires
- Present your expertise through seminars and presentations
- Amplify your visibility through advertising and social campaigns reaching schools, households and educators
